PRESS RELEASE

ENGLISH

ff is pleased to present Erogenous Zone, the opening exhibition of the project Temporary Autonomous Zone / 2, at Galerie im Körnerpark and Pony Royal, Berlin.

Erogenous Zone explores how women reflect upon and experience sexuality and eroticism today, and aims to create new contexts and frameworks for continued discussion about these topics.

How can sexuality be depicted differently than what one would normally define as pornographic? How can women be represented in a non-submissive way? What is the difference between male-centric pornography and the erotic? Are there specific female forms of representations of sexuality or the erotic? Is there a different vision nowadays about sexual freedom in comparison to the 1970s? Can we build or define our own, new 'Erogenous Zone' from the works in this show?

The exhibition developed out of an open call that went out to female artists, friends, and acquaintances of ff. It contains very diverse visions and works that range from small drawings to large sculptures and video installations – from images that show the erotic body to very abstract, sensual positions.

ff sees eroticism as an important element of our way of being in the world, creating art, and communicating.

Erogenous Zone is curated by Mathilde ter Heijne and Juliane Solmsdorf / ff
